Title	Is AJ possessed or over-cloaked by 'Jesus' and Mary possessed or over-cloaked by 'Mary Magdalene'?

Question

If a spirit can possess a person, then could it also be that you, AJ, are not Jesus, but rather being possessed by a spirit who believes he is Jesus. Could it also be that Mary is not Mary Magdalene, but is possessed by a spirit who believes she is Mary Magdalene?

Answer

Of course, both of these things are possible, from an on-lookers point of view. I doubt whether any other person in human history has had his or her own identity questioned for a 2000 year period as much as I have. In the first century, most doubted that I was the promised Messiah, and throughout my spirit life, most people who asked for Jesus were initially disappointed and confused when I came to them, and now, most people who hear my claim as to being the real Jesus of the Bible at best doubt me, are condescending towards me, generally attack me, and at worst, attack me violently. Almost all do not trust me.

Many more people accept that Mary is Mary Magdalene, than those who accept that I am Jesus. In fact, when we are together, we have often had people come up to us and say:

"I can believe, you, Mary, are Mary Magdalene, and I feel that is true, but I cannot accept that AJ is Jesus, and him saying he is Jesus really makes me annoyed or angry!"

What I find is that most people I speak to have huge emotional blocks to accepting that I am Jesus, and to a lesser extent that Mary is Mary Magdalene. Most people's assessment comes from their expectations of what or who they believe Jesus to be. Also most of the people who are asking the question deny most of these emotional blocks within themselves that cause them to ask this question. Their real reasoning is:

"I do not believe that it is possible for AJ to be Jesus. AJ is not what I expect Jesus to be. AJ is not healing as I expect Jesus would do. AJ did not come on a cloud to denounce the wicked. AJ seems very imperfect to me, and he annoys me a lot, which Jesus would not do. AJ makes mistakes (in my assessment), and so he cannot be Jesus. AJ is not God, so he cannot be Jesus. (and so forth)

So, now that I have established to my own benefit that AJ cannot be Jesus (this often occurs without any personal meeting with me, and without and knowledge of my character or nature), I must now go and find another alternative explanation for how AJ is coming up with all of this stuff that he does, an alternative that suits my belief system, and then, of course, I have the right to present or even fight for that belief with AJ and others who seem to accept (in my opinion erroneously) that AJ is Jesus!"

In addition many people initially do think that I am Jesus (usually because they are told this Truth by their spirit guides), but then, when I seem to do or say something that upsets them, they reject their initial thought, and then try to find reasons as to why their new belief is supportable.

As a result, the majority of persons are not interested in openly and honestly engaging the question of whether I am Jesus or not. They have already decided that I cannot be Jesus, and so they then try to come up with an explanation of my claim that suits the belief they have already decided upon, rather than even logically delaying the decision until more proof or evidence is presented to make a final decision.

It is possible that Mary and myself are possessed by spirits who both knew each other in the first century, and who are falsely claiming to be Jesus and Mary Magdalene. But how likely is it? Well, that is really for the onlooker to decide for himself or herself.

I have already answered the question as to whether the real Jesus of the Bible would ever over-cloak or possess a person on earth. (See FAQ - Is it possible for a person on earth to be over-cloaked or possessed by the real "Jesus"?)

I am also stating with certainty that I am the real Jesus, and that Mary is the real Mary Magdalene. You have a choice:

1. Look at the teachings in more detail, and examine them by experimenting with them in your life to see whether they are Truthful or not. Then ask the question as to where these teachings come from.
2. Delay your decision as to our identities until such a time as you believe there is enough evidence or proof either way.
3. You can always change your mind!

I put to you that if you put into practice the Divine Truth, and connect to God in the manner as described in the teachings, you will not only resolve whether Mary or myself are over-cloaked or possessed, but you will also, through your connection with God, be shown the Truth as to whether we are the real Jesus and Mary Magdalene or not.

In addition, there are many dark spirits who are actively opposing our work on earth, and who would like to see both myself and Mary dead. These spirits are perfectly happy to connect to your unhealed emotions of anger and rage, and use those emotions against the spread of the Divine Truth. Many people who have initially listened to me, have eventually been overcome by these spirits, and so, they then attack myself and Mary instead. But I put to you that if you are developed in Love, you will never resort to attacking anyone, false or not.

It is as I said in the first century:

"43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet only your brothers, [8] what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? 48 You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. - Matthew 5:43-48. English Standard Version

The fact that I do not attack those who attack me already demonstrates that my own condition is more loving than those who attack me. And, surely, a persons condition is all about how loving they behave.

I also put to you that it would be unwise to make the decision on a whim, or on a belief system that you wish to hold onto that is in error, when you have a possibility of receiving the highest Truths that have ever been presented on earth in all history.

It is far better to experiment with the question (and with any similar question for that matter), than it is to attempt to force the answer into your own current belief systems. In other words, it is far better to have an open mind and heart, and a patient and waiting spirit, in the resolution of questions of a spiritual nature, than it is to assume that you have resolved the question before you have even completed a sound investigation.
