Mediumship/Discussion Text

AJ: Will you ask Beatrice how they are doing?

NLD: They are now in a different environment where there is actually some light and some colour and Louisa now has some different attire and she's listening to Ralph and she's sitting up.

AJ: Ahhh, that's good.

NLD: So she is already, she has already, she already looks different. Subtle changes they are there.

AJ: The, uh you know, I could just feel her devastation of him leaving her in the, uh, when her father lost her, um you know, lost everything and then killed himself and I could just feel her devastation not so much at that event but the loss of the love, the love that she felt she had.

And I think that NLD has some crying about this issue.

NLD: No, that was really powerful for me because I could feel them both. Well I am sure you could too. And then I had a moment in the middle when I just went into my mind thing of this is insanity.

AJ: Well a lot of times ones like Louisa who have, who are in a really terrible state wanting to harm themselves over and over again are, you know, so much of their pain is the pain of loss of love, you know, and she obviously was quite a sensitive person to the pain of loss of love. So I believe that once, I believe that once she starts allowing her self to see everything that she will progress quite rapidly. Because usually a person who has that sense of pain of the loss of love seeks and desires the love of god a lot stronger too, you know.

NLD: uh huh, Beatrice has just said that it will be a very gentle process with her.

AJ: Yes, yes, yes. And Ralph was quite, he was feeling that I was quite accusatory at the beginning and, uh, he was finding that a bit difficult once he got beyond that emotion things were a little different then. (pause)

Is that what everyone hoped would happen?

NLD: Yes, how could it not be?

AJ: Are there many in the same kind of condition?

NLD: Yes there are hundreds of thousands like that.

AJ: mmm Yes. Is it possible perhaps to find the condition of their soul mates and...Has it been considered? I am not sure?

NLD: I think in some situations that it has but it's, you know, it's not always easy and if the soul mates aren't receptive at the time...

AJ: Yes.

NLD: or if they are not, you know

AJ: In good condition.

NLD: Yes it isn't' and its difficult getting them to really listen and be convinced.

AJ: Particularly from somebody in the spirit world who's in a better condition Yes. I'm just wondering, umm, with some of these different ones, we can if their soul mates are at least willing to talk, then we can maybe in the future do a few more, where they are willing to talk, that might help a group, that might help groups of them rather than individuals, but I would say that a lot of the soul mates if they have been in that condition for hundreds of years then the soul mates might be in a second sphere condition and if they are in a second sphere condition then we would certainly be able to hopefully reason with them coming from the perspective of uh...

NLD: So that would, that requires more of like, more organization, like, umm, celestial guides to find the soul mates and to get them together is that what you are saying?

AJ: Yes but not so much, umm, they would find the soul mates quite rapidly I believe. The issue is going to be more helping the soul mates see...see many of the people in Louisa's condition the reason why they get in such terrible condition is because often it is their soul mate that has done the damage, you follow what I mean and when your soul mate has done the damage it sort of cuts you to your heart you know and, uh, and so then there's, so on the other end you know if the soul mate, say that while the soul mate has done that kind of damage I doubt whether the soul mate is ever going to be in a better condition than the second sphere unless they have really worked through some issues or they have found the divine path.

So the key really is firstly to try to find the soul mates of these ones and then to reason with them about, you know, help them trigger some of their emotions about the damage they did while they were on the earth.

As you can see with Ralph there was that initial desire to defend his own actions which you know I understand completely his actions and the amount of pressure that he would have been under but he at that same moment didn't understand how cut to the heart Louisa was by his actions, does that make sense? And if we can help the soul mates feel those emotions of the damage that they have done then it will certainly assist the ones who are in the state that Louisa was in to feel those emotions, Yes, and if they need our assistance to do that then we will be happy to assist where ever we can.

NLD: Beatrice says, thank you and leave it with us.

AJ: Yes, and the other thing too, just one thing I wanted to bring up is obviously John, John himself has been in a situation recently on earth where he felt that longing for his soul mate so desperately you know and so therefore could relate also to the emotion if he was with his soul mate and his soul mate left him and so that might, having a close connection with those emotions will certainly help John to be able to assist those ones too.

NLD: Umm humm

AJ: Yes it is a sad place for them to be isn't huh NLD, like you know you think of someone like that who's just through no fault of their own all of these series of negative circumstances happens one after another after another and in the end you get into such a despondent state you just, all you want to do is just die and then when you suicide and you haven't died there's that terrible feeling you have. I just want to die. Why can't I just die? You know.

That was a bit hard on you that one was.

NLD: A bit, two sets of people crying. Well when they both were crying at the same time, that was quite a little challenge for me.

AJ: Yes but there was also some connection with you with the soul mate issues as well.

NLD: Well I didn't expect that, that was different. Good, very good. The other thing that I felt, at the beginning, when, because I didn't quite sort of get what was happening, I could feel just such, such wonderful love coming from like the celestial guides and whoever else that was there. They were sort of all around Louisa even though she wasn't aware of them and it was just such a lovely, lovely feeling at the beginning, of this just total love and concern for this one sort of desperately retched woman on the ground.

AJ: That's right.

NLD: It was awesome.

AJ: In the spirit world, like ones in Louisa's condition they have so much love surrounding them but they are unable to connect with it because of their own feelings. The key is to try some method of connecting them to the feeling and then once they feel that feeling then they will be fine, when I say fine they'll be able to progress but if they can't connect to that feeling it's just so hard. There are literally thousands of celestial spirits surrounding these ones, you know, waiting to assist them because it's not often that spirits on the natural love path will actually assist them.

NLD: umm Oh really it's just; it's just from the Divine Love path that this help comes.

AJ: Yes a lot of spirits on the natural love path will not involve themselves in assisting people in Louisa's condition.

NLD: Why?

AJ: Well there are a number of reasons the first one is, they feel that it is hopeless. They feel until there is something that they know not will happen, until she can be talked to intellectually, that they can't help her out of her situation and so they feel the situation is hopeless. So what they do is that they just avoid all hopeless situations, does that make sense.

NLD: mmmm

AJ: So from their perspective the situation is hopeless so what they do is to avoid the situation.

NLD: mmmm

AJ: Yes. So I would doubt there would be very many people on the natural love path surrounding Louisa aside for her soul mate visiting her occasionally and perhaps some of her relatives and some of her friends that she had while on earth wondering that they would look at the situation and feel the situation was quite hopeless.

NLD: mmmm

AJ: Yes, but it isn't ever hopeless huh?

NLD: Nope. (pause) Well that will trigger a few people's emotions when the read that one, when D__ transcribes it.

AJ: Do you reckon?

NLD: Don't you think?

AJ: May do.

NLD: What do you mean may do? No?

AJ: Oh no. Yes I think it will.

NLD: That felt pretty powerful to me. I think that will get lots of people going.

AJ: Yes well that is not such a bad thing.

NLD: No.

AJ: A lot of people are not, ...they are not facing some of the feelings about soul mate issues; you know and they are avoiding them really, intellectualizing them selves away from it.

NLD: Well I think that we are going to hear about that one.
