Mediumship Text

Hello dear one,

You are never alone and you are not trusting the power of your own soul to cope and to change. Indeed until now (as you rightly think) you have changed only slightly as compared to the transformation you shall soon make. As with all things the rate of this change is dependent on you and your own desire. What you choose, when you choose, it is entirely up to you but we do see magnificent things to come and it is only you who lacks faith in your ability to achieve these things. You have a powerful soul and when you choose to do a thing then you will find your will and power and strength awesome – until now you have not decided. You still let fear dominate you.

Yes, you can hope – you are too afraid to do this – but please take this message from us: there is much to be hopeful for, excited for even... the LOVE that exists in all of the spirit world far exceeds the fear and hate and anger you see around you and feel present in the lower realms. Remember this – do not stake your reality on what appears around you. The scales are tipped on the side of LOVE and it is only for a short time that the focus of fear should dominate what is occurring; indeed they only appear to dominate.

Believe in LOVE our dear sister, you used to (believe in it) deeply. Have faith – this is faith and in remembering your Father you would remember that this mission is possible. Do not let that which is around you dictate to you, dominate you.

Instead focus your heart and thoughts on that loving Father that you do know so well. Remember the lessons He has taught you – about the power of Truth and Love. Yes you must release the fear and pain you have inside from this earthly life but do not forget to focus on the Truth – that is also well known to you.

You diminish yourself, your own power and wisdom in your own eyes. You choose to limit yourself and believe that you do not have the strength to overcome the pain within. Know now that this is your EXCUSE. Not a single person around you believes this to be true. We, your guides and sisters, are merely waiting in joyful anticipation for you to take these steps.

Have faith dear sister.

Have faith in God's great laws, God's great Love and the potentials that exist in His universe.

You are a part of this potentiality and you forget this or, should we say, choose to ignore this because of the great fear and unworthiness that is triggered when you receive this Truth.

Yes, open your heart but not just to your soulmate. First you must do this with God – after this all other steps will seem possible.

FAITH will be your greatest asset in the journey ahead. Have faith in what you cannot see but that you already know to be Truth inside of you – you resist accepting this Knowing – choosing instead to believe in the things you see around you. Indeed using these things as an EXCUSE to avoid who you truly are, what you came here to do and the great LOVE inside of you for God, your soulmate and all of humankind.

Your sisters and Celestial friends,

Rachael and others.
