Mounting Spirit Attack

Mary: Hi Rachael,

There is so much coming up for me at present. Fear of all that awaits. Feeling attacked through the interaction with the film crew. I feel like I am leaving society publically and forever.

There is also so much attack happening here on the land and I know that so often I have been blocking how much negative energy is aimed our way because I have not wanted to feel the level of my fear and terror about it. I feel more and more that now is the time to face fears, to open up, and to be liberated through the release.

Can you guide me today and give some insights to Yeshua?

Guides: Dear sister,

You find yourself at a crossroad in your life. Indeed the next while will be a departure from all you have known and desired through your injury to belong, to be approved and be accepted.

I remind you that you have reached this place and point through a dedication to what you feel is true, through the following of your heart – simply trust God that this process will continue to guide you to greater growth and freedom if you will only allow it.

As we channeled to you some months ago – there will be this time of intense scrutiny and attack; and you must remind yourself of your goal – which is God and to bring Truth to this earth plane.

Truth does not already exist here, and so you confront so much error through your very presence alone.

I know that you would desire that you are not the people, the soul, you know yourselves to be. You sister, desire to bring this Truth to the earth while at the same time denying who you are – not understanding that it is because of who you are that you know all these Truths. Understand that your identities are essential in CONFRONTING the errors on earth – the strongly paternal paradigm which neglects the feminine universally on the planet, the error of the sacrifice and blood that shrouds Yeshua's image on the planet.

It is true that these things will not be easy, but God is your ally! There is less to fear if you view these events in the light of this Truth.

You will both experience a deepening and expansion of your relationship with God through this experience, and His Love will show you how to love and teach in ways not yet imagined here on the earth plane. Trust your heart, allow your fears, and you will rest easily with God.

In Truth, there is a deep and expanding concentration of dark spirits surrounding you both and others on the Divine Love 'path'. In the spirit world, there is growing knowledge that your presence on earth threatens large (and small) power structures on earth. While you (Miriam) currently perceive threat from those with religious inclinations, in reality these are not the ones that threaten you the most.

ALL of the earth's economic and political structures are controlled by spirits, and while those in the physical may have little regard for a random 'cult' leader, the spirits who control those earth souls and systems now have the knowledge of what a large threat both of you pose to their control of earthly power structures.

While earth changes are also known to these spirits, they did not regard the earth changes as such a threat to their own dominance of the earth. Before they became aware of your presence and potential, these spirits were very confident, expectant even, of their increased ability to dominate the earth during these changes. They look forward to the time of turmoil as a chance to instil extreme fear in the lives of those remaining on earth and in those who pass, and through this fear, create even more oppressive, manipulative, and evil means to control others.

The teachings of Love and Truth threaten their plans. Currently they influence David and others to paint a black picture of you both, and of the path. They wish to portray you as a threat to common society. Of course, this is what you both are, in the most positive of senses!

What they do not realize is that in creating a furore around you they actually expose 1000's and 100'000's of others to the knowledge of the Divine Truth. Ultimately this will only further our cause and not their desire to halt this most precious work we are all so deeply engaged in.

We wish to remind you both that you are not alone in your efforts. There are so many of us engaged along side you – endeavouring to turn people's hearts and minds towards God, assisting them to know the power and beauty of such a relationship.

At the moment, however, at many stages our hands are tied with those surrounding you – there are many emotions within each person surrounding you that keep them bound to earthly desires and motivations.

But of course, nothing God does is wasted – as you are beginning to recognize and experience dear Miriam – and the coming experiences will assist many to refine their relationship with God. Of course, some will come to see that they did not truly desire God, and they will leave this path for a time. In the end, this is as it should be – each of us must come to see the Truth of how much (or how little) we desire God and a relationship with Him – ironically, this is the beginning of a relationship with God.

You are both on the brink of great change, of deeper joining between you, and of greater and more powerful teaching. We encourage you to walk what you teach in these days and you will experience much more growth. Stay humble to yourselves – allow the whirlpool of triggers to expose and filter out the impurities left within each of you.

Spirit Mediumship With Mary Magdalene

Our excitement is extreme! We sit with many who have not yet already heard of you – many who unknowingly hunger for God and His Truth. We wait to inspire them in your direction, and this TV programme will give us this chance.

Guides: Miriam: It is vital that you focus on releasing your fears. This will finally open you to the grief with your family, and beyond this lies deep freedom, in both your relationship with God and with Yeshua. Pray on these things and God can assist you greatly.

Guides: Yeshua: Do not be distressed about things such as your property or use its condition as a measure of your growth and development. There is much spirit opposition, and they delight in your self attack over what amounts to trivialities given the scope and power of this vision you hold.

In the coming months, you must be willing to surrender to this emotion of always being the first, being the leader, being the person always under the most attack, and the one who bears the sole burden of this mammoth task. It is your resistance to your grief, your feelings of the loneliness, and the sense of responsibility that actually prevents further support. Once those emotions are fully felt, further support will come.

You are concerned for others of the 14, and it is true that the coming months are vital for each one of them. You can assist them the most through your acceptance of the role as leader (you still rebel against this, but brother, it is the Truth of your role, and in time you will come to feel the joy and blessing of this once again).

We sit also with each of those of the 14 and impress upon them often thoughts of you and of God. You are on their minds more often than they would like to admit. Simply honour your own emotions, and process, and they will be drawn to you once again. The love the both of you have to give them when they do contact you again will be vital – you will need much, much love in order to help them. Most of them are in a very dark condition, and the better condition of love that you are both in the more you will be able to rapidly assist them.

Guides: Be prepared for things to move very quickly in the months ahead. Miriam, it is vital that you remain connected to yourself – this will become easier and easier – for remember that God is creating the conditions (through the waves of Love), that support our growth, as long as you are willing to be humble.

We love you dearly, brother and sister, and see a time soon when our communications will become more frequent and intimate. This brings us so much joy, for we long to be around you, our dearest friends, more often (or, we mean, that you would both be more conscious of our presence much more often).

We leave you now with so much love and blessings from hearts full and running over with the Father's Love and knowledge of the Goodness and the Possibility He has imbued into all things.

Your brothers and sisters,
Guides and Friends
