

Divine Truth Outline

The Human Soul - Addictions & Bribery, Fear Threats & Blackmail

Introduction

Revision regarding how Divine Love enters the soul
Padgett message – Jesus March 2nd 1916
Divine Love does not make the breakthrough into your soul
The Holy Spirit does not make the breakthrough into your soul
The soul must first have an awakening!
Read excerpt from The Prayer

Today want to show:

Why most people listening or reading Divine Truth do not progress towards God quickly
What real humility means
What real grief really means
Why God's Truth is so important to your progression
Why most of the audience is stagnating in their relationship with God
If you have not developed in Love (which will result in changes to your relationships & actions) in the last 6 months, then you have not progressed substantially

Reminders About Emotions

The onion layers

Causal Emotions

The emotions that are really there within you
The emotions of Truth that are within, "warts and all"
The emotions via which we connect to God
The emotions that prevent our connection with God
The emotions that prevent the Divine Love from entering the soul
Causal emotions change our soul attractions
Causal emotions once released open up our relationship with God
The release of causal emotions creates all healing
God's Love enters me when I long for Her Love and feel my causal emotions

Fears

Fear is the primary block to feeling our causal emotions, and therefore connecting to God
Fears must be felt, not analysed intellectually, but physically and emotionally felt
Our fears include our emotional false beliefs; about self, God, love, truth, parents etc
Remember our fears are our False Expectations Appearing Real
A child naturally feels all causal emotions, but our environment (esp. parents) create our fears
One of the deepest fears is the fear that we will be unable to cope with feeling our causal emotion

Addictions

When we no longer wish to feel our fear, or we wish to avoid our fear, we then want our environment to compensate for our fear (in order to make the fear go away)
We create expectations for our environment to help us avoid the emotions we are afraid of We create demands upon our environment to help us avoid the emotions we are afraid of When our addictions are met, we feel "happy", "secure", "safe" etc
Unfortunately in this place we are often conceited and arrogant, not seeing our real self

Anger

We revert to anger when our environment, or people in our environment no longer:
Meet our personal expectations or demands
Meet our emotional or physical addictions
When we resist the pain of the addiction not being met
Anger is our guide to our "seeing" or becoming "aware" or "awakening" to our true condition
Anger will only be present if our additions ARE NOT MET

The Human Soul - Addictions & Bribery, Fear Threats & Blackmail

Theme For Today

If you are not angry, not afraid, and not grieving causal emotions, but you are not yet at-one with God, then you are heavily in addictions
Most are still in the actions that demonstrate their addictions are still fully in play
God cannot connect in this place, & you must take personal responsibility to get out of this place
Addictions & Bribery, Fear, Threats & Blackmail

Bribery

Willingness to compromise the Truth in order to get your own addictions met Willingness to push another into an action (or emotion) in order to make yourself feel good
Willingness to meet other peoples addictions in order for you to receive "good" feelings from them

Threats

Willingness to use other peoples fear as a tool to meet your own addictions
Willingness to use other peoples discomfort as a tool to make yourself feel comfortable
Your willingness to use the threat of the removal of love as a tool to control others
You can just "threaten" it. since the other person is in so much fear they allow the control
You are preying on the fear that others do not allow themselves to feel Threats only work when others are afraid to feel their emotions
A person who uses threats is not being loving, and cannot connect to God

Blackmail

Your willingness to completely remove love from a relationship in order to control another
Your willingness to be as unloving as you need to be in order to have another meet your addiction
Your willingness to harm others emotionally to get what you want

An Example

Anger: He did not treat me like I am 'special' (cry, hurt, angry, resentful etc)
Blackmail: I will not listen to, spend time with, have sex with a man unless he makes me feel 'special'
Threats: If the man does not feel I am 'special' then I cannot be sexually attracted to him Bribery: I am willing to give to men sexually as long as they believe I am 'special'
Addiction: I need feelings that I am 'special' to come from others, esp. men Demand: Others need to believe I am 'good', 'special', 'different', better than other women
Fear: I fear others will believe that I am horrible, shameful and dirty
Fear: Others do believe I am 'horrible', 'shameful', 'dirty' Fear: I fear feeling that I am what others believe me to be Causal emotion: I feel 'bad', 'shameful', 'dirty'

To get closer to God:

We need to release the causal emotion
We need to release emotionally the erroneous self-concept
We need to be prepared to FEEL the causal emotion
Any other emotion does NOT get us closer to God, because it is NOT humble

God's Love enters me:

When I am prepared to FEEL the damaged self-concept Because I am now taking FULL personal responsibility for the emotion within Because I am now open to the Holy Spirit, and open to Divine Love entering Because I am being completely humble in this place
Because my heart has now had an "awakening" regarding the error

Other Examples

Offering to help someone when really we want their time, attention, approval, acceptance
Sexual attraction to a person that makes us 'feel good' about ourselves, or makes us 'safe'
Having other people agree with us, and avoiding people who have different beliefs
Avoiding the anger of others by not telling them the truth of what we really feel Rebellion against a person, place or thing in order to 'prove' something Needing our soulmate, our parents, our children, or any other person Needing to feel that we are a good parent, good boss, good child etc
Needing others to look after us, avoiding personal responsibility
Accepting poor treatment from others because "that's all we deserve"

Unloving Human & Spirit Influences

We use these techniques(bribery, threats and blackmail) to:

- Avoid our own fears and causal emotions
- Avoid our own feelings and desires
- Avoid our own passions and longings
- Avoid our own disappointment and disillusionment
- Get others back under our own control

Spirit Addictions

Every spirit surrounding us comes from one of 3 influences:

- Our guide or guardian
- Other spirits who wish to assist our progression
- Spirits who are responding to our own, and their own addictions

Every spirit around you who is not a helper, is there because of one of your own addictions

Every person around you who is not a helper, is there because of one of your own addictions

Co-dependent interactions are the result of emotional addictions

Physical addictions are just an extension of the emotional addiction

Bribery – The Spirit Way

Making your life easier as long as you do what the spirit wants e.g. If you have a fear of not having enough, helping you financially

e.g. If you feel bad about self with opposite sex, helping setup sexual liaisons

e.g. If you are addicted to a substance, helping you find a source for that substance

Threats – The Spirit Way

When the bribery does not work, the spirit then uses our fears against us by threatening us e.g. If I am afraid of feeling I don't have enough, threatening to make my financial situation worsen

e.g. If I am afraid to feel my worth with opposite sex, having the person I am with threaten to leave

e.g. If I am addicted to a substance, having the source of the substance threaten me

Blackmail – The Spirit Way

When the threats do not work, the spirit tries to make your life as difficult as possible until such a time as the spirit gives up attempting to control you e.g. A series of financial disasters, these stop when I have dealt with my fear completely

e.g. A series of partners leaving me for someone else, this stops when I deal with my worth issues

e.g. A series of abusive situations, this stops when I have dealt with my addiction to the substance

Conclusion

How loving are you when your addictions are not met?

If you are demanding, upset, angry, frustrated, etc, then you are still being unloving

If you remain in your addictions, then:

The relationship with God will be the first relationship that suffers

The relationship with yourself will be the next relationship that suffers

It is highly unlikely that you will attract your soulmate into your life

All relationships are tainted with a lack of Love

Padgett Message

Jesus - March 2, 1916 – Having an awakening

I am here, Jesus -

I desire to write tonight on the subject of how the redeemed soul is saved from the penalties which sin and error has brought upon it.

When the soul is in a condition of sin and error it is not responsive to the inflowing of the holy spirit, and in order to get into a condition of receptivity to these influences it must have an awakening as to its actual condition of enslavement by these things.

Until such an awakening comes to it there is no possibility of it receiving the love of God into it, and of turning its thoughts to the truths of God and to the practices of life that will help it in its progress towards a condition of freedom.

I would not have mankind believe that any soul is compelled to stay in this condition of slavery to sin until the holy spirit comes to it with the Father's love to bestow it in all abundance, for the mission of the holy spirit is not to awaken man's soul to a realization of sin and death, but merely to bring to that soul this love when it, the soul, is ready to receive it.

The awakening must come from other causes that influence the mind as well as the soul, and cause them to realize that the life man lives is not the correct life or one in accord with the demands of the laws of God, or with the real longings of their own hearts and souls.

Until this awakening comes the soul is really dead so far as its having a consciousness of the existence of the truths of its redemption is concerned, and such death means a continuance in such thoughts of sin and evil and in the life which leads only to condemnation and death for long, long years, it may be.

But to come nearer to my point of discourse. The soul that is existing in sin and error will have, sooner or later, to pay the penalties for such sin and error, and there is no escape from the payment of these penalties except in the redemption that the Father has provided by the new birth.

These penalties are only the natural results of the operation of God's laws and they must be endured until the full penalty is paid. Even though a man may progress to higher condition of soul excellence and have much happiness, yet he must pay the last farthing and thus release himself from these penalties.

With much love, I am your friend and brother – Jesus

Excerpt From The Prayer

Keep us in the shadow of Your Love every hour and moment of our lives, and help us to overcome all temptations of the flesh, and the influence of the powers of the evil ones who so constantly surround us and endeavour to turn our thoughts away from You to the pleasures and allurements of this world.
