Answer

I am definitely not a cult leader. If a person looks at my answer to the question about my own definition of what a cult is, I certainly do not come under the definition of any those particular things I have mentioned.

A cult leader is a person who promotes control of other people, a person who's willing to manipulate other people into doing what he wants, who desires worship and who desires control and power over others. I do not want any of those things.

Just because I am saying that I am Jesus, it doesn't automatically make me a cult leader. What would make me a cult leader is my desiring those particular things. As the bible record shows and as my own record in this century shows, I've never desired those particular things and so therefore I cannot be defined as a cult leader in my opinion, but of course that's just my opinion.
