Answer

Members? Well, I actually personally own the organisation called Divine Truth that I've set up as a legal entity so that I can trade, and so that I can have a website and other things and, the only member of that organisation is myself. I am the only Director, and I am the only shareholder of that organisation. We did have a God's Way of Love organisation, but that only had two members – that had Mary and myself – but very recently we closed down that organisation. I gave a talk recently in December of 2012 about closing down that organisation.

In terms of having members, in terms of some kind of church, or some kind of organisation other than what I've just stated, we have no church, there is no religion, and there is no organisation. So therefore there are not members, there are no persons who are coming along regularly to some kind of service, or some kind of church. I personally do not ever feel like that will be the case.

I feel that what will happen more and more is that people will listen to the Divine Truth, they'll decide for themselves whether they want to follow it in their personal lives or not, and as I keep teaching people, there is no need for them to go along to some kind of service or church, or be a member of some kind of organisation. And we're not creating any organisations with any membership. So, no, there are no members and I have no idea how many people are listening to the Divine Truth around the world.
