This is a response to the Channel 9 program "A Current Affair", which broadcast in May 2012.

The video of the first broadcast can be found on the Current Affair website on the Internet here (http://aca.ninemsn.com.au/video.aspx?vq=AJ%20Miller) or on YouTube here (http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IEs7SORT9P4&feature=related)

The parts of the response that are in quotation marks and italics are quotations from the media presentation.

All of the talks that I have given that are cited in this response can be found on the Divine Truth Channel (http://www.youtube.com/user/WizardShak) on YouTube.

Background Information

The report was a follow up to a series of features in "A Current Affair" that were presented by Channel 9 over three days in May 2011. This presentation is even more heavily distorted and designed to inflame a larger negative public response than the programs that Channel 9 presented in 2011. Most of the reporting in this program came from the USA, through underhanded methods engaged by Mr Denham Hitchcock, the reporter, his cameraman, and a woman who was planted in the audience by Mr Denham Hitchcock. I discuss these methods during the weekend presentations which can be viewed in full on YouTube on the "Divine Truth Channel".

The discussions are called; "20120218 General Discussion - Blocks To Spiritual Progression In The USA", "20120218 Lessons In Love - Love Has Power Over Evil S1P1", "20120219 Lessons In Love - Love Has Power Over Evil S1P2", "20120219 Lessons In Love - Love Has Power Over Evil S1P3", and "20120219 General Discussion - Q&A From People In The USA", given over a period of two days in February 2012. Each of these discussions can be viewed in full on YouTube.

During 2012, Mary and I went to the USA as a part of a trip overseas to England, Greece, and the USA. Mary organized most of this trip with the help of people in each location, and so most of the bookings that were made during this trip were in Mary's name. While in Dallas, Texas, the Channel 9 USA correspondent, Mr Denham Hitchcock, tracked us down. Of course, since everything was booked in Mary's name, he believed that we were somehow trying to hide our presence in Texas. This is not true. It was just a simple matter of the bookings being in Mary's name. He easily found where we were. Also, it was not hard to track us down, since the schedule for the trip was available to the public and downloadable from our Website, and also from Mary's personal Blog. Details of each venue, including the addresses, were included on both the Blog and the Website.

Both the cameraman, and the woman plant (we were told later she was a cheerleader for the Dallas Cowboys football club), came into the room near the beginning of the seminar, and sat down the front of the venue on the left hand side (looking towards the audience). Around 50 other people who had flown from different locations throughout the USA were also present.

Neither the cameraman nor the women openly disclosed to us that they were there as reporters. Both Mary and I noticed that they were not really engaged for most of the presentation. Mary was using the audience camera. During the presentation, another man (whom we later found out was Denham Hitchcock) came in and interrupted Mary, and asked her whether he could bring a camera into the venue. Mary, being nervous of most media interactions, allowed the reporter into the room, which was quite disruptive.

If I had been asked, I would have first found out which TV outlet had sent the crew, but Mary was both nervous and wanted to get back to her audience recording, and so she did not ask Denham Hitchcock where he was from. I have a personal policy that if a TV outlet lies about me in a previous report (such as Channel 9 did in their original reports), then I will not give any more formal interviews with that particular TV outlet until they spend as much time correcting their lies publicly as they did presenting their lies publicly. And, if I had known that Channel 9 was the outlet in question that Denham Hitchcock was reporting for, I would have denied entry to the venue, which was privately hired by Mary.

Since I was presenting to the audience while all of this was happening, it was not possible for me to really intervene with what happened and find out more detail without interrupting the presentation. I decided to continue with the presentation.

Up until Denham Hitchcock entered the room, both the cameraman, and the woman reporter, did not engage in any of the presentation. As soon as Denham Hitchcock entered the room, the cameraman rose, grabbed the camera, and begun filming. In addition, the woman reporter also began to engage me in questions. Near the end of the presentation on the first day, the woman begun asking me questions about being Jesus, a subject that I had not intended to discuss nor was it a subject that was a part of the discussion that the audience wanted to embrace. I briefly answered her questions, and recommended that she watch certain videos on YouTube rather than make the entire audience follow her own line of questioning, which was not considerate to the other members of the audience. After her pushiness in questioning, it became obvious that she was sent by the reporter to just ask specific questions.

Once the seminar stopped, and the reporters had interviewed some of the participants within the audience, Mr Denham Hitchcock requested an interview with me. I asked him what Channel he was representing, and he told me it was Channel 9 'A Current Affair'. I explained to him my policy was to never give another interview to a TV outlet that had lied about me in previous interactions and programs unless they presented the full truth publicly about their lies. He told me that it was unlikely that Channel 9 would agree to that requirement, and so I stated in return that I would not be able to have an interview with him.

Media Response Report

Of course, like every media reporter I have ever met to this point, he would not accept my refusal (the media don't like hearing "No" as the answer). He attempted to "reason" with me about why I should give him an interview, along with accusing me of being unfair and many other things. My reply remained firm, that I could not give him an interview. During this time, Mary noticed that the cameraman was recording anyway. Mary asked the cameraman directly whether he was recording or not, to which he replied, "No". Mary stated that it appeared that he was, and he lied and said "it's just the camera time code". Of course the cameraman had lied since he was recording the entire time.

After Denham Hitchcock had attempted to get me to continue with an interview by trying to talk me into it, and with me giving definite reasons as to why I could not give him an interview under the circumstances, he, his cameraman, and the woman reporter eventually left. Looking back on it now, I can see they only left when they felt that they had enough information to form the basis of a TV program. Unfortunately, both Mary and I did not think to record the interaction ourselves. If they actually played the complete interaction with me, which they obviously recorded, most people would find a lot of interesting information presented about love of self, the use of free will, and such things.

After my refusing to interview with them on that day, they still ignored my refusal, and came on the next day during the presentation, attempting again to get access to the venue, and have an interview. This time I had given the front desk of the venue instructions to not allow them into the room. So eventually they left without getting a formal interview.

Whenever I have said "No" to any interviewer, I have noticed that the reporters who have been refused an interview automatically seem to make it their mission in life to present as many lies as possible. They arrogantly seem to assume that no-one should ever deny them, and once you do, they seem to believe that this justifies their attack and criticism. Apparently a member of the public has no right to have their own decision upheld, no right to any privacy of any kind, and no right to determine what they wish to be personally involved in when the media is present.

Both Mary and I found the reporter, the cameraman, and the woman plant, to collectively be false, insincere, and liars. I fail to see how any person who is a member of the public can be presented with "truth" when the very persons purporting to tell the truth are liars themselves.

Response

Now let me address the contents of the actual report. It is, of course, not only mostly false, but also purposefully misleading and inflammatory. As I have stated, I have been asked by Channel 9 on a number of occasions since their first report to have further interactions, and each time I have refused and explained to them in detail why I have refused. I was not willing to be formally interviewed by Denham Hitchcock for exactly the same reasons as I have stated to them many times, and that is they were unethical in their treatment of previous interviews, and I cannot expect them to be more ethical in future interviews unless they publicly tell the truth.

I am not sure why Channel 9 even went to the expense of attempting to gain an interview with me in this case, after being refused access on previous occasions. It is perhaps that Channel 9 were contacted by some people who are located in the United States who spend their time constantly defaming me on the Internet, due to them being angry with me about some personal feedback that I gave them to assist them in their development. Some of these people are located in Texas, and perhaps they encouraged Channel 9 to attend the seminar in question to create an even more negative and sensationalist story about Mary and me. Channel 9, perhaps seeing it as an opportunity to get higher ratings and make more money, took the opportunity. I do not really know why, given my previous refusals.

Once again the media have resorted to using specific terminology that they know inflames negative responses in the viewing public in order to generate an impression that they wish to create (an impression that has nothing to do with the truth), even though the terminologies they use are not actually reflective of the truth. They also use tools such as computer visuals on the screen to alter the clips taken from my presentations on DVDs or YouTube to make the seminars resemble some kind of horror movie, which is another tactic designed to manipulate and control the viewing public into experiencing feelings that Channel 9 wish them to have while viewing me (i.e. fear and suspicion), rather than actually presenting the truth in an unbiased way that would enable the public to make up their own mind.

Obviously Channel 9 would not like to present factual information and allow the public to make up their own mind because presenting a story about a man and woman travelling around the world giving seminars about love and truth for free would not create the ratings and the advertising revenue that they want to achieve.

I will address specifically the inconsistencies, distortions, falsifications and other lies that were presented in the report below.

Accusations about me being a "cult leader"

"Aussie cult leader Allan John Miller is at it again"

And later on:

"Nick Coe: So what you're leading is not a cult?"

AJ: People will view it as such probably.

Nick Coe: But people do when you talk about being Jesus Christ and having met Elvis.

AJ: (Laughs)

Nick Coe: You hear what I'm saying?

AJ: Sure. But all I'm doing is saying the truth."

Firstly, Mary and I have events happening on a weekly basis. So, we are "at it again" generally on a weekly basis. We do not wait for 6 months for the media attack to calm down, and then do further events. We constantly run events, and intend to do this for the foreseeable future.

The latter segment was a clip from the heavily edited recording of the interaction I had with Mr Nick Coe over one year earlier in Australia. As I have outlined in my media response to those presentations, the media are using the term "cult" to create fear and suspicion in the public about myself and my teachings.

The presumption that Channel 9 are making is that just because I am calling myself Jesus then I must also be running a cult. The only people who compare me to cult leaders are the media themselves. My seminars are open to anyone who wishes to come to listen to Divine Truth, and people are free to come and go as they please during them. I do not charge for any of the seminars that I give, since I believe that Divine Truth should always be provided for free. People who come to my seminars do not need to stay for the duration of my talks and they can leave at any time. There is no "membership" or any other binding nature of the Divine Truth. All of the material that I teach is freely available on the Divine Truth website, as well as the Divine Truth channel on YouTube, and DVDs and external hard drives containing our material are copied and distributed for free with no copyright. So there is no secrecy in any of the material that I present, which the media wishes to suggest by using the term "cult", in order to make me appear secretive and controlling, which I am not.

I must say that we are not beginning or running a religious movement or a cult. We have no ministers, no priesthood, no doctrine, no laws, no regular meetings, no religious services, no compound, no generalized meeting place, no property ownership (other than Mary and my own personal home), and there is no cult. We have never claimed that we are forming a religious movement, and so I personally do not see how anyone can call us a "new religious movement". We are promoting through everything we do (seminars, interviews, discussions, personal interactions etc), living a life based upon principles of love every single day of our life. We do not control whether anyone listens to our teachings, or applies them. We have no structure, nor disciplined approach. We hope the principles of Divine Truth are incorporated into all movements on the planet, not just those that are religious.

I have very little dealings day to day with most of the people who attend my seminars. So I do not attempt to control anyone who comes to my seminars and listens to my presentations on YouTube or on DVDs. I actively encourage people who listen to my seminars to follow their own desires in harmony with Love and Truth, rather than attempt to have any kind of dependency on myself. This is vital if they are going to grow in their relationship with God. I describe this in the talk "20100412 The Human Soul - Taking Personal Responsibility".

Having any kind of control over people is also in total opposition to what I teach about God's Law of Free Will, since whenever somebody tries to control another person, they are immediately out of harmony with the Law of Free Will, and this incurs a consequence for their soul condition, taking them further away from God. Since my main objective in life is to grow in love and to grow towards God, this is a direct contradiction of my teachings and how I live my life. These teachings are described in the talk "20120421 The Human Soul - The Gift of Free Will" and "20120422 The Human Soul - The Gift of Free Will".

As to the question whether I have met Elvis; yes I have. He came to speak with me in 2007, which is the first time I actually met him. He described to me what had been happening in the spirit world since he passed over, and asked me questions about how to progress in the spirit world, which I responded to as I always generally do when a person is sincere. He came to me because he had found out from other spirits that I was alive on earth, and since he was brought up as Christian, he decided to speak to me. There are also many records even in the Bible of times that spirits came to speak to me. This is not a special or unique process to me, and it is something that happens daily in my life.

The issue of my identity

"AJ Miller says he's Jesus Christ. We first found him spreading his message in Australia but now this self proclaimed son of God has taken his mission to the world."

Channel 9 reporters are making the assumption that because I say I am Jesus and "this self proclaimed son of God", they are implying that I am arrogant and believe I am different from other people. They are basing this erroneous assumption on falsities contained within the Bible.

Media Response Report

I have never made any claims that I am God, or part of God, nor have I claimed that I am the only child of God. However in the first century I did become Divine in nature, when I become at-one with God. Since then many people have reached this condition in the spirit world, but they also do not claim to be God. So I see myself as a brother and equal to all other humans on Earth and in the spirit world.

I definitely do claim I am a son of God, just as I also claim that every person on earth and every person who has ever lived is either a son or daughter of God. The media are trying to suggest that I am stating that I am special and other people are ordinary, when the reality is that I believe that everyone is special, and a child of God. I also definitely claim that I am Jesus, the same Jesus who walked the earth in the 1st century.

However I do not proclaim myself at the moment to be "Jesus Christ". In the first century I reached at-onement with God, and in that process I became "Christed". However I have not yet reached that condition of love since I have returned to Earth, and therefore do not use that term about myself. I am just the man, Jesus, who has had a 2000 year life which I remember. I hope to become "Christ" again at some time in the future when I have worked through my own personal issues surrounding the lack of love within me. The media are using this term as a way to imply that I am saying I am a deity, and putting myself above others, when in fact I teach that I am a human being, just like everybody else on Earth and in the spirit world, and that we are all equal children of God. We can all become "Christed". I also do not believe that anyone must listen to me about any subject. I am willing to answer questions from sincere people who want to know answers.

"He claims he's Jesus Christ (more foreboding music played in the background), back from the dead, to spread a message he calls the Divine Truth."

I have not returned from the dead, and I have never claimed this. I have returned from the spirit world, where I have been alive for the past nearly 2000 years. After I passed in the first century I lived in the spirit world for almost 2000 years, having one continuous life with one continuous set of memories, until I incarnated back to Earth in 1962. I have been alive for that whole period of time, as has Mary Magdalene, my soulmate.

"(Clip from Buderim DVD: AJ writing 'I'm Jesus, deal with it')"

Channel 9 and Channel 7 have focused a lot on a seminar that I gave in Buderim on 19th December 2009, which was entitled "I'm Jesus, deal with it" (which can be viewed on YouTube here <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sm6pAZ3nD2M&feature=plcp>). To put it into context, out of 260 events (including seminars, interviews and book groups) that Mary and I have given in the last 5 years, this is the only presentation where I focused on the issue of my identity, for a period of 2 hours. There is over 700 hours of unedited presentations on YouTube, and yet this is the one that seems to continuously offend the media.

All of the other seminars that I have given in that time have been focused on Divine Truth teachings rather than on myself. The reason I gave this presentation is because many people who come to listen to me were, and still are, avoiding the emotions that they have inside of themselves about the issue of my identity. Many of the people who come to listen to my talks live in fear of the ostracism and judgment it can create in their lives when they say to their friends and families that they are spending their weekend listening to Jesus giving a seminar. Many people who attend my seminars are not being honest or truthful with their family and friends because of their fears. These emotions are blocking their relationship with God, since we cannot become at-one with God until we have removed all of the negative emotions from our souls, and stop lying to ourselves and to others.

Media Response Report

Of course the media show this clip to manipulate the public into thinking that my teachings focus on me, rather than on how people can develop in love and develop their relationship with God. This way they can then accuse me of being egotistical, narcissistic, conceited, and controlling the people who come to listen to my talks by attempting to convince them that they must listen to me and do what I say. This is the opposite of what I actually do in my seminars, as those who attend know. As I explained above I do not control the lives of people who listen to me, and I do not claim that I am God or part of God.

It is also interesting that the media choose to show this clip to create the impression that my teachings are all about me, while at the same time disregarding the message that I am presenting in the clip i.e. that most people who come to my seminars have not resolved the issue of my identity. The media disregard this because it conflicts with the message that the media wish to portray; which is that I have brainwashed the people who come to listen to me into believing who I am, when in fact most of the people who listen to me do not yet believe I am Jesus. Once again the media edit out clips from different presentations and interviews, and manipulate those edits to create the story that they want to portray, rather than presenting anything that is actually based on the truth.

"(Clip from Brisbane seminar in August 2008) AJ: I'm going to have to say that I'm Jesus. I certainly don't want to be Jesus! At the moment I certainly don't want to be."

This is a clip from a seminar that I gave in Brisbane in 2008 ("20080809 Overview of Divine Truth - The Divine Love Path"), where, in context, I was referring to the time in my life when I had remembered who I am, and that I realised that I was going to have to tell people. The media seem to think that my life is better as a result of me saying that I am Jesus, and that I have more power and control over people by me saying this. As I explained in this seminar, saying I'm Jesus is not the easy option. It does not give me more power or control, neither of which I want, but instead it makes many people feel they have the right to be condescending and attacking towards me, much more so than if I did not say I was Jesus. Most people state that they listen to me despite my claim that I am Jesus, not because of it.

"(Clip from Brisbane seminar in August 2008) AJ: And remember that it has been prophesied in the Bible and other places that I was going to do this. That I was going to return."

Many Christians are waiting for the return of their Jesus. Interestingly, they expect Jesus to return using violence, something that their own Bible demonstrates that Jesus had no desire ever to resort to. Also, they wish Jesus to return this time in the same manner that the Jews in the first century wanted Jesus to return, as a world ruler destroying the wicked and setting up a kingdom on earth by force. I suggest that I shall never do this, and also that, if a person accurately read their Bible to find out the true nature and character of Jesus, they would never expect the Jesus of the Bible to do this either.

In the background, my partner Mary is shown demonstrating to members of an audience what it feels like to feel anger and fear in your body. This clip has been taken from another of our own YouTube presentations that are unedited on the internet, and has also been taken out of context many times by the media to make us both seem unreasonable and disturbed. I suggest that any person listen to those presentations, and see for themselves whether such presentations are reasonable or not.

Accusations about me attempting to take over the world and taking money

"No matter how he puts it, AJ is selling a message. And when it comes to Christianity and cash flow, there is no bigger retail market then here in the US. 76% of Americans are practicing Christians. That 240 million potential followers."

This is an attempt by Channel 9 to create fear in the public that I am out to take their money. I am NOT selling a message, since there is nothing for sale; everything I do is free of financial charge. I do not even advertise my teachings at present. All of my presentations, and all of the Divine Truth material that we distribute, are provided for free. While there is a donation box at the back of the room when I give seminars, there is no obligation for people to donate, and there is no collection. There is a donations page on the Divine Truth website that provides a mechanism for people to donate to us if they want to.

Mary and I do live off the donations given by people, but we will also return donations to people if we feel that they are not given in the spirit of love or if there is any kind of requirement of us in return, since this is not a true gift. Nor do we accept donations from people who we know are short of money themselves. I give the gift of my time to others. Some of them feel to give me a gift in return, and the mechanism for that to happen is provided, but the gift is not solicited. Mary and I also declare these gifts as income to the government, and pay taxation on the gifts we receive, contrary to other people's claims.

Channel 9 reporters are making the leap that because I say that I am Jesus then I am forming a Christian based organization. My teachings are not what Christians generally accept. I am just teaching any person who wants to listen about how to have a direct personal relationship with God without any intermediary, including myself, and without a religion. Most religions install a hierarchy of intermediaries between people and God, and I cannot agree with these actions. I believe the principles of Divine Truth can be introduced into all religions, and I do not wish to be the leader of any religion.

"His followers have financed his current world trip from Australia to Greece, England, Dallas, Texas and back to UK. (Countries are shown like military targets)"

And later on:

"What is certain is the self proclaimed Messiah from Queensland is taking his message to the world."

And later on:

"It's a message the faithful have travelled from all over the US to hear. (Clip from Love has power over evil seminar with a hidden camera) AJ: Florida and California. Philadelphia. New Mexico. Washington. South Carolina. Texas."

Once again Channel 9 are showing computer graphics that to create a sense that I am conducting some kind of military operation, preparing for world domination. (This I find to be very amusing). I merely wish to teach the truth to anybody who wishes to listen. Mary and I do rely on people's donations to travel to different locations around Australia and overseas – we simply travel to places where we have been invited to travel to, and when we have received enough donations to do so. We certainly have a desire to take the message to the world, since we believe strongly that this message will have a lot of positive effects on the world if the world embraced what we believe are the Truths we present.

Media Response Report

I am a qualified computing professional, and Mary is a qualified Occupational Therapist. If we do not receive enough gifts to survive, we are able to work in a different way to obtain income. However, at the moment, through the generosity of many of those who listen to our teachings, we receive enough gifts from people to live and travel to teach the Divine Truth to others, free of charge. I challenge any person who criticizes me in this regard to setup their own life in the same manner; to stop working for money, and do what they love and see whether others appreciate what they do enough to support their endeavor. Most people would not be courageous enough to live this kind of life financially. My suggestion is that they personally attempt to live that kind of a life, and see what emotions are challenged within them to live such a life, before they criticize Mary and I about how we receive funds to support our life.

In the first century, we also received donations. This is clearly expressed even in the Bible. It is interesting again that the Jesus of the first century is allowed to receive donations without criticism, but the modern day Jesus is treated as if he is untrustworthy for doing so. The media relies on the lack of knowledge within the general public about what the 1st century Jesus supposedly did as recorded in the Bible.

In addition, the media itself seems to only report on matters that will increase its own viewer base, and therefore potentially increase its own revenue through advertising. There is a general public fear about organizations taking money from individuals or about being ripped off financially, and I can understand why such fears exist when there are many persons who are willing to treat other people badly when it comes to financial matters. In my situation, the media only wishes to connect to this fear, rather than present the truth that I am an ethical man when it comes to financial matters, as all persons who deal with me financially will attest to.

Accusations about me holding seminars in private

"AJ is currently on a worldwide tour. We've travelled to the American state of Texas to find him. It's nine months and half a world away since A Current Affair's Nick Coe tracked him down for a first exclusive interview."

"Yesterday when we called they claimed there was no such person by the name of AJ Miller even staying there. And they say there is no seminar taking place. So we go in with a local Christian, who read about the seminar on the Internet. (This lady, Jane, was a media plant)"

"(Clip from Love has power over evil seminar with hidden camera)"

And later on:

"In the age of the Internet his message is instant, and thanks to YouTube, unedited."

This report by Channel 9 is full of contradictions. On the one hand I am the leader of a secret "cult", which requires hidden cameras to be brought into the seminars in order to see my teachings and requires me to be "tracked down", but on the other hand my material is condemned for being available to watch on YouTube "instantly and unedited". I am accused of trying to take over the world, and yet apparently I am so secretive that nobody can find out where the seminars are that I am holding.

The truth is that all of our material is available for anybody to watch on YouTube for free. It is not copyrighted, and people can do whatever they please with it. I do not have any control over the material. I do not advertise my seminars, but we place our schedule on the Divine Truth website and Mary's blog, so that anyone who is interested can come along. So it is not very difficult to "track me down" when our schedule is openly posted on those sites. Channel 9 acknowledge this by saying that the seminar information was on the Internet, but put it in a context to give the impression that the information it is hard to find on the Internet. All a person has to do is to visit our website. We do not believe in marketing, because that forces people to read material they may not wish to see. But we place our intentions on the website, and anyone who wants to come is able to attend as long as they remain respectful and have an intention to act lovingly during the event.

When the reporter rang the hotel, and asked whether AJ Miller was booked in, the hotel did not know that I was staying there was because the booking was in Mary's name, since she had made the booking for us. If the media had referred to the Divine Truth seminar, they would have had an instant reply, since the hotel staff and we ourselves referred to the seminar as a "Divine Truth" seminar.

Channel 9 also made the unethical decision to bring in a hidden camera with them to the seminar that they showed in the clip, and yet they could have just used the unedited material that we place on YouTube for their report, since, as they say, all material placed on YouTube is unedited. (It was the talk 20120218 Lessons in Love - Love has Power over Evil, and can be viewed in full here.) They used the hidden camera in an attempt to promote the feeling that I am secretive and manipulative, when I am not, as can be seen from any of my presentations on YouTube. Instead they were highly manipulative themselves by employing an actor, "the local Christian", to ask me provocative questions during the seminar in order to provide Channel 9 with some comments about my identity that they could then creatively edit for their own means for their report.

Implications about me creating a group of emotionally unstable people

Channel 9 use heavy editing of many of my seminars to give the impression that either I am preying on emotionally vulnerable or unstable people, or creating emotionally unstable people through my teachings. They showed the following clips that were taken from occasions where there were people at the front of the seminar who were either experiencing some emotion or demonstrating how to experience emotion, in order to prey on the fears of the public about experiencing emotions, such as rage and terror:

"(Clip of AJ talking a young man, Josh, through experiencing some childhood rage) AJ: That's how much rage is there, you see."

"(Clip of Mary showing how to get into emotions from a Buderim DVD - shown twice)"

"(Clip of a woman called Monique experiencing some fear on a 2009 Buderim DVD)"

A core part of the Divine Truth teachings is humility, which includes a willingness to experience all emotions - both positive and negative emotions (which I describe in the talk "20091114 Relationship with God - Humility"). Humility is essential in order to form a close relationship with God, because our entire relationship with God is based around emotions, and therefore if we choose not to feel our emotions, we are at the same time choosing not to connect to God.

The world is currently in an unloving state, and there are many unloving emotions within us that create our unhappiness, many of which entered us as children from the unloving treatment from our environment, which included our parents. Storing negative emotions such as grief inside of us blocks our relationship with God and causes a lot of sickness and disease; and therefore it is important to release these emotions from us in order to form a closer relationship with God and become happier.

Accusations about me not speaking to the media

"AJ is happy to spread his word on YouTube but no longer wants to answer questions from the media, especially over his doomsday predictions."

This is another distortion of the truth. I am always open to media interactions, just as I am always open to any other interaction with any person. However, if a person or media outlet, by their treatment of me, demonstrates to me that they have little respect for telling the truth, or little respect for treating people in a loving and considerate manner, I refuse any further interactions.

It was not that I did not want to talk about potential Earth changes that I currently believe are going to happen in the future, I just did not want to speak to Channel 9 specifically for the reasons I have mentioned above. As I explained to Mr Hitchcock, and I also described in the seminar I gave the following day ("20121219 Lessons in Love - Love has Power over Evil), the reason I refused to do an interview with Channel 9 was because of their previous unethical treatment of me.

I gave a full interview with Nick Coe in May 2011, and Channel 9 heavily edited this interview and distorted the truth in order to falsify information about myself and the Divine Truth teachings. I stated to Mr Hitchcock that I would be only willing to do another interview with Channel 9 if they were prepared to publicly state that they lied about me in their previous programs about me, and they were willing to issue an apology and broadcast the interview with Nick Coe in full. Since Channel 9 are not prepared to do this then I am not willing to do another interview with them. This is very confusing to the media because they assume that all people wish to engage with the media to gain fame and power. I do not wish for either of these things; I would just like the world to become a more loving place.

It is also not true that I am not speaking with the media, because I have done several interviews since this time (which are also available to watch on YouTube) with other members of the media who had not previously treated me unethically. Unfortunately most of those interviewers did then treat me unethically during the course of our interactions, and so I will not be conducting more interviews with them either until they demonstrate that they can treat me in a more ethical and loving manner, and not continue to lie about me in order to improve their ratings, readership or to make money.

Accusations about a doomsday prophecy

"AJ is happy to spread his word on YouTube but no longer wants to answer questions from the media, especially over his doomsday predictions."

(Filmed with hidden camera at the end of Love has Power over evil seminar)

Denham: Events that are bad enough to wipe out hundreds of thousands of people?

AJ: Potentially, yes."

I do not believe or teach that there will be any doomsday or apocalyptic end of the world, or that these events are part of a Biblical Armageddon. In fact, I have publicly expressed that I believe the future can be very good for all humanity, but that this will depend upon what humanity collectively chooses. I do feel that events will take place on the Earth that could be severe in terms of geographical changes. However I do not believe that this is the end of the world, or the end of human civilisation or life. However, I do believe that the Earth will change a lot over the coming years, and at this point in time I still believe that some countries may completely disappear and other countries will change completely. This could cause many people to pass into the spirit world. However they do not die when they pass, they will continue to live just as I did after I passed in the first century. (I have talked about this in the seminars "20100815 Spirit Life - What Happens When You Die Session 1" and "20100822 Spirit Life - What Happens When You Die Session 2".)

Media Response Report

I believe that these changes happen cyclically to the Earth, and there is physical evidence for these changes occurring in the past. I must remind the reader, as I have reminded people every time I have talked about these subjects; that these are my opinions at this moment, and these opinions will obviously change as I become more progressed in love. I do not believe myself to be in condition to make accurate prophecies about the future, and I have stated this publicly many times. Anybody who states I am making firm prophecies about the future has not listened to my very many comments about my own personal condition and abilities.

"(Clip from the Love has Power over Evil seminar with Channel 9 camera) The spirits he says want them to change the way they live. To love more, become self sufficient to prepare for cataclysmic events such as the ones in the movie "2012". Huge natural disasters from which he will emerge as the saviour."

And later on:

"(Clip from Love has power over evil seminar with hidden camera) AJ: So what our spirit friends are encouraging you to look at is changing your way of living to take more personal responsibility for those things. Now for some of you that's going to mean even changing where you live."

While I do encourage people to take more personal responsibility for their own lives, as I explained above, and the spirits I had spoken to before the seminar were also encouraging people in the audience to do this, I recommend that people take this action irrespective of whether Earth changes happen or not. This is an essential quality for people to develop if they are going to grow in their relationship with God. I believe each person on this planet needs to become more self-responsible, particularly for their food production, water supply, and basic human necessities, rather than relying on other people to always supply these basic human needs.

I have never stated that I am going to be anybody's saviour. This is a complete fabrication by Channel 9, and is drawing on the false information contained within the Bible about my life and the reason for my death in the first century. My death did not save people then, just as my return will not save people from any cataclysmic event, nor from the results of their own choices. What happens to people during their lives is determined by their soul condition, and the only way for us to change that is to focus on our own soul development, and not rely on any other person, including myself, to save us. I explain this in the talk that was heavily edited earlier on the in the presentation to meet Channel 9's own ends, "20080809 Overview of Divine Truth - The Divine Love Path".

Conclusion

This presentation by Channel 9 is another attempt by the media to create a sensationalist story out of a large body of lies and fabrication. They are taking what they know has created media interest in the past, including references to doomsday cults, and are creating stories about us that are fictitious to manipulate the public into experiencing fears about me and my teachings. They are using these lies and manipulations as tools in an attempt to create a story that bears no relation to the actual truth, for the purpose of getting higher ratings and making money.

As a result of my dealings with the media, I now place a full, unedited copy of every interview I that I give on the Divine Truth website and on the Divine Truth Channel on YouTube, since I have learnt from my previous experiences with the media, including with Channel 9 in May 2011, that the media twist the truth in order to sensationalize their presentation. They present many clips of what I say out of context and edit my responses so that people cannot hear the full answers to questions that I am asked, which is highly misleading, and designed to manipulate the public into buying the story that the media wish to create, rather than actually delivering the truth.

Any person who is open to discovering the Truth will need to question the underlying motives that the media seems to have to distort the truth or present actual lies in order to maintain their power base. This seems to be a general problem in the media. I am personally looking forward to meeting a media professional who does not do this, since I believe now that such a person will be a rare find indeed.

At the moment, many members of the media and public are accusing me of the same things I was accused of in the first century, with the only difference being that they are using a different physical medium. This demonstrates how little things have really changed in 2000 years of human history. Hopefully change will begin to happen soon, when the general public realize they are being manipulated daily by the media, and desire to call to account the media for their dishonesty and manipulation. This is already happening in other countries, and I believe it also needs to happen here in Australia.

I believe in order to do this the public will need to become more willing to face and accept truth themselves, rather than having a preference to believe lies. In addition, the public will need to work through the emotion of forgiveness when they hear the truth, because, at the moment, there is a general desire in the public to punish people who lie, rather than just accept a sincere apology for the lie from a person who demonstrates sincerity for the apology by correcting the lie in the same public manner they stated it.
